Congratulations to Trevin & Emily McConnell!

wonders about! When it came time for my son Trevin to choose a ring for his fiancé Emily, he and I figured out the basic style she was after - thank you, Pinterest! We determined that we wanted Emily to have the best ring available so we of course set our sights on Simon G! If she loved this fabulous designer's style, we knew that would be the place to go! If he didn't have exactly what she wanted, we could always have our custom goldsmith create it for us. Since Simon is absolutely prolific and creative with his designs, it came as no surprise that we found the perfect ring! Trevin's ring comes with some sentiment: his grandfather, Bill, can't wear his ring comfortably anymore (due to wrist surgery), so he passed down his timeless platinum and 18kt gold ring to Trevin! So the new couple has one of the best jewelry designers in the world and a treasured family heirloom!
